

The DFG Research Training Group "Digital Platform Ecosystems (DPE)" offers a position as

Student Assistant

with a working time of 15 hours/month for an initial period of 12 months starting ASAP (later entry dates possible).
The salary is 13,25 €/hour for Bachelor students and 15,25 €/hour for Master students.

The student will support Irene Furlani and Prof. Dr. Michael Grimm in the research area C.2 (development economics).

Job description:

- Literature research
- Preparation of datasets according to current research needs
- Other activities on request

What we offer:

- Deep insights into empirical work in the fields of development economics
- Flexible working hours
- Possibility of working remotely (upon agreement, a working space in HK16 can be provided)
- An open and international work environment at the research training group

Your profile:

- Enrolled as a student (Bachelor or Master) at the University of Passau (we are unable to employ students who have already finished a master's degree), able to come to the offices of the research training group if needed
- Working skills in data processing in Stata (knowledge of related software is a plus but not requested)
- Working proficiency in English
- Ability to work independently, with diligence and reliability
- Knowledge of survey programs (e.g., SurveyCTO, Kobo Toolbox, etc.) is a plus
- Basic knowledge of GitHub is a plus

The University of Passau intends to increase the percentage of women and strongly encourages women to apply. The position is suitable for severely disabled persons. Severely disabled applicants will be given preference in the case of equal suitability, expertise, and experience.

We look forward to receiving your application documents (1-page cover letter, curriculum vitae, transcript of records and other relevant certificates).

Please send your application documents by mail only and in one single PDF file to irene.furlani@uni-passau.de with the subject 'RA Application' and by November 15th, 2024. These will be deleted no later than five months after completion of the application process.